

Scholarship Application for Professional Travel and/or Conference Registration

The de Tornyay Center for Healthy Aging is proud to support graduate students who are presenting research with a focus on aging at regional, national and international conferences.

1. Purpose: To fund graduate students who are presenting research at local, state, national, and international conferences.
2. Eligibility: UW School of Nursing graduate students in good standing, students already committed to attending a conference, and students with an accepted abstract.
3. Amount of Scholarship: Not to exceed $600. Scholarships will be awarded on a competitive basis. We are aware that the scholarship may not fully fund student travel.
4. Priority consideration will be given to first-time applicants with an accepted research presentation.
5. Decision of award notification: Decision will be communicated by email.
6. Responsibilities of scholarship awardees: Attend conference and give research presentation, submit original or PDF of receipts to the de Tornyay Center for Healthy Aging within 2 weeks of the conference, and agree to present conference learnings at a SoN open forum.

Review: All submissions will be reviewed by Basia Belza, Director of the de Tornyay Center for Healthy Aging. Review criteria will focus on the following:

- How conference is related specifically to student research, project, or future plans
- Relevance of abstract or poster to healthy aging
- Priorities as identified above
